

Please do not force your "no call law" upon the state of Indiana, which would lessen our exsisting law. I am now able to spend quality time with my children in the evenings, not being interupted 2-3 times (each and almost every evening!!) to answer unwanted solicitations.